

Denver

ACADEMY

Learning Differences

EDUCATION NIGHT

Thursday, November 7, 2013
5:15-8:30 p.m.

~

19 Speakers. 3 Sessions.
Information Not to Be Missed.

Denver Academy is excited to announce the 2nd Bi-Annual Learning Differences Education Night for parents, professionals, educators and community members.

AGENDA

5:15–6:15 p.m.: Registration and Information Fair
(Please arrive no later than 6 p.m. to be ready for the first session)

6:15–6:55 p.m.: Session 1

7:00–7:40 p.m.: Session 2

7:45–8:25 p.m.: Session 3

D.A. parents are highly encouraged to attend this event.

Please note that each presentation will be given three times.
For a detailed agenda and to complete the required registration, please visit: www.denveracademy.org/ldnight

Questions: Amy Macy, Director of College & Transition Counseling
amacy@denveracademy.org

Fostering Friendships in the Elementary Years

Enhancing Your Child's Resilient Spirit

Self-Advocacy and Success in Elementary & Middle School

The Handbook to Understand Your Adolescent

Life Skills Every Teen Needs to be Independent

Higher Ed for Students with Learning Differences

The Making of a
Competitive College
Applicant

The Ins and Outs of the Post-Secondary Search

Financing Higher Ed

Neurofeedback, Efficacy and the Teenage Brain

Addressing Glasser's Needs in the Classroom

Readiness for Success:
Advocating and Parenting with Differentiation in Mind

Denver Academy 101

Adoption and Identity
Development

What to do After the Diagnosis

Social-Emotional
Challenges for Those on the Autism Spectrum

Parenting Your Plugged-In Child

Mindfulness in Education

Denver Academy leads as a center for excellence for the education of students with learning differences. We help our students develop their intellectual, social, creative, physical and ethical potentials within a nurturing environment so they may acquire the skills and confidence to be successful in life.

Denver Academy | 4400 E. Iliff Avenue | Denver, CO 80222 | www.denveracademy.org